I Once Was a Cowboy: Sixty Years a Canadian Ranch Hand Art Hagen

RELEASED 2010 PAGES 352 RIGHTS AVAILABLE WORLD

Art Hagen has been a cowboy his entire working life, on the cattle ranges of Alberta and eastern British Columbia. This cowboy poet and singer shares the unique life of the cowboy as he looks back on a rich tradition full of stories about riding the range, ranch life, and the rodeo arena.

The Secret of Love Lori Carpenos and Christine Heath

RELEASED 2017 PAGES 208 RIGHTS AVAILABLE WORLD

This book is a compilation of amazing stories from couples whose relationships improved just by being pointed within, toward their true nature. The inspiration came from a lecture by Sydney Banks, who uncovered the Three Principles that create one's experience of life and form the common denominator behind all relationships.

The Canadian Cowboy Cookbook: From the Ranch to the Backyard Duane Radford, Jean Paré and Gregory Lepine

RELEASED 2014 PAGES 160 RIGHTS AVAILABLE WORLD

The heyday of the true cowboy may have ended, but our fascination with that way of life lives on. This book is a tip of the hat to all things cowboy, including archival photos and historical information interspersed with delicious recipes to provide a glimpse into life as it was on the range.
