

Midtown Press is a small, family-owned business that produces two to four titles per season. With a focus on British Columbia, Midtown further explores both French and English works from the rest of Canada. Though the press currently publishes historical works and children's literature, they hope to start publishing fiction in the future.

Julia

Michael Kluckner

RELEASED 2018 PAGES 132 RIGHTS AVAILABLE WORLD

A novelist, journalist, socialite, botanist, explorer, and World War I ambulance driver, Julia Henshaw was a unique and colourful personality. This graphic biography follows her eventful life from Montreal to Vancouver, from Banff to London, and from the mining towns of British Columbia's Kootenays to the battlefields of France and Belgium. Her strongly expressed views of women's roles and voting rights, of racial and class issues, and of Canada's relationship to Great Britain and the USA provide an illuminating contrast with the values of her contemporaries, and with society today.

Fly Fly

Daniel Ancil ILLUSTRATED BY Corentin Hunter

RELEASED 2015 PAGES 32 RIGHTS AVAILABLE WORLD

With a dream-like quality, this book allows children to explore wild animals and birds common to the Pacific Northwest and the Rockies. It follows them from sunrise to sunset and presents various aspects of wildlife in a rhyming cadence children will love.

Scamper and the Airplane Thief
