Breaking Boundaries: LGBTQ2 Writers on Coming Out and Into Canada

EDITED BY Lori Shwydky

RELEASED 2018 PAGES 146 RIGHTS AVAILABLE WORLDWIDE / ENGLISH

What does it mean to be LGBTQ2 in Canada? The only possible answer to that question is one given in many voices. There is struggle in these stories and poems, but there is also strength and resilience, compassion and determination. Woven together, these voices give a sense of hopefulness; a belief that the creativity and fierce commitment of our community will carry us forward as we work to create a Canada that lives up to the dream of freedom and safety it represents to so many people around the world.
